Deployment Instructions for CollabFast

CollabFast is a web-based application. The following steps will be needed to run the application. The following instructions will run the program on a Windows machine.

1. Download the Capstone-Master zip file from the submission
2. Unzip the Capstone-master folder.
3. Double-click the CollabFast.sln file to open the project in Visual Studio
   a. Visual Studio is available here if not previously installed (https://visualstudio.microsoft.com)
4. Press Ctrl+F5 to build and run the application in the computer's default web browser.